Wines for the Season

As the year runs its course wines of different weight, style and personality are needed to match the produce on offer and the mood of the season.

Listed below are a few wines we feel particularly suit the current menu...

Larmandier Bernier 1er Cru Blanc de Blancs MV 63.00
Vertus, France

Larmandier Bernier is considered the modern master of Chardonnay in Champagne
He grows all his own grapes and makes wines with intensity and character while maintaining a refreshing lightness. Truly great quality and value.

Riesling, S.A. Prum Kabinett 2007 36.00
Mosel, Germany

Aromatic and Concentrated, this is a triumphant expression of Riesling.
Length and richness perfectly balanced by vibrant acidity. Complex and finely textured.

Viura, Bodegas Pleno 2008 19.00
Navarra, Spain

Freshness and ample citrus flavours make this a perfectly refreshing wine to enjoy in this rare warm weather and the value is unbeatable.

Gavi, Fontana Fredda 2008 35.00
Piemonte, Italy

This is a truly refined beautifully balanced wine, impossible not to enjoy.
Subtle peach and apple flavours are perfumed with almond and white flowers all lifted by a lovely bright acidity.

Petit Rimuaresq Rosé 2008 30.00
Côtes de Provence, France

A lovely pale pink. delicate and scented with red berries and dry flowers.
Crisp, dry and a really refreshing drop perfect as the warmer days approach.

Fleurie, Domaine de la Madone 2008 33.00
Burgundy, France (Cote de Beaujolais)

Soft cherries and strawberries lifted by dried flowers and a pinch of spice. Very Spring .

Côtes du Rhône, Domaine de L'Espigouette 2007 33.00
Rhône Valley, France

An exceptional example of how good Côtes du Rhône can be. Beautiful dark fruits and silky, rich textures are nicely complemented by fine tannin and juicy acidity.
